Workshop prices include the cost of one or more trained staff. All workshops are subject to availability and schools are booked on a first come first served basis.

MEDIEVAL LIFE at Tamworth Castle

This is an interactive two-part handling session, providing children with an insight into Medieval times.

GUIDED TOURS

Through the use of original and replica objects and costumes we will investigate characteristic features of the lives of the different groups of people who lived and worked in the castle.

Children will be given the opportunity to wear court costume, handle items such as an original clay cooking pot, tallow candles and rush light holders. This session includes a small group object identification activity.

Total cost per child: (including admission) £5.50 Session time: approx 1 hour

Fun, interactive and informative tours which can be based on a theme of your choice. Tours are relevant for groups studying:

- Change over time
- Attack & defence
- Role of museums

LINKS WITH THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM

- History at Key Stage 3: Use evidence, weigh it up and reach own conclusions. Research, sift through evidence and argue a point of view.
- History Unit 2: How did Medieval monarchs keep control? How did William of Normandy grasp control of England? How did William the Conqueror secure control of England?
- History Unit 3: How hard was life for Medieval people in town and country? Was life always hard for Medieval peasants? How can we find out?
- History Unit 4: How did the Medieval Church affect people's lives? What impact did monks and nuns have on people's everyday life?

Medieval Crime and Punishment

GUILTY OR NOT!

LINKS WITH THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM:

- History at Key Stage 3: Ask perceptive questions, think critically, weigh evidence, sift arguments, develop perspective and judgement. Understand the complexity of peoples' lives, the process of change, the diversity of societies and relationships between different groups and the challenges of their time.
- History Unit 2: Develop pupils' understanding of democracy, government and the rights and responsibilities of citizens. Pupils should use and apply their knowledge and understanding whilst developing skills to research and interrogate evidence, debate and evaluate viewpoints and present reasoned arguments.
 - The nature of rules and laws and the justice system, including the role of the police and the operation of courts and tribunals
 - The liberties enjoyed by the citizens of the United Kingdom

The session explores Medieval crime and punishment and contrasts to crimes and punishments of modern times. It provides an insight into how hard life was for people during these times, the severity of medieval justice and the difficulties that monarchs had maintaining social order and control.

Working in groups and using historic documented cases from the medieval period, students are encouraged to use their reasoning, enquiry and analytical skills to form decisions and build a case for either the defence or prosecution.

Total cost per child:
(including admission) £5.50

Session time: approx 45 minutes

THE MEDIEVAL SOLDIER

THIS IS AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO GAIN HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE OF THE LIFE OF A MEDIEVAL SOLDIER.

The workshop includes: Interactive Weapons & Armour Talk – Children will learn about the deadly art of combat and will be invited to try on costumes and armour.

Bill Drill – An opportunity for everyone in the group to step back in time and train as a Medieval soldier using small replica bills: This will include marching and practice with the bill.

Total cost per child: (including admission) £5.50

Session time: approx 1 hour 30 minutes

LINKS WITH THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM:

- History at Key Stage 3: Use evidence, weigh it up and reach their own conclusions. Research, sift through evidence and argue a point of view.
- History Unit 2: How did Medieval monarchs keep control? How did William of Normandy grasp control of England? How did William the Conqueror secure control of England?

Civil War Workshop

BY THE SWORD DIVIDED

A two-part interactive workshop based on events at Tamworth Castle during the Civil War.

Session 1: This session explores life for a soldier at Tamworth Castle. Participants will undergo military training and learn how the different ranks defended themselves.

Session 2: This session enables children to work independently, make decisions and create a final product based on their interpretations of historical information. The workshop focuses on flags and their significance and use as military tools. In pairs the students will design a new flag for a key personality who made an impact on Tamworth during the English Civil War. All groups will compile a profile of their personality with the help of a 'profile enquiry sheet'.

Total cost per child: (including admission) £7.00

Session time: approx 1 hour 30 minutes

LINKS WITH THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM:

- History at Key Stage 3: Use evidence, weigh it up and reach their own conclusions. Research, sift through evidence and argue a point of view. Evaluate and use sources of information; recognising how history can be represented and interpreted in different ways.
- History Unit 8: The Civil Wars: Was England 'turned upside down' in the seventeenth century? Why did parliament win the Civil Wars? Was the world turned upside down? Why do people interpret Cromwell in different ways?

Leisure & Tourism

An hour long talk with group activities providing students with an overview of how a heritage attraction operates, its main aims and objectives, key services and target markets. All participants will receive a marketing pack with material that can be used back in the classroom.

Total cost per child: (including admission) £5.50

Session time: approx 1 hour 30 minutes
